Dear Sir:

Will you please tell me how to go about it to get some "Peace Dollars" (a thousand or so) which I notice by a newspaper article, are ready for distribution today?

Respectfully,

Dear Mr. Maxwell:

I think you were rather late in applying for the 1921 Peace dollars. I do not know just how you should apply for them - presumably, from the Federal Reserve Bank of your district, as I understand that that was the way they were distributed here in New York. Whether it would do you any good to write to the Mint, I do not know. I should judge you would proceed in the same way that you do for other coins.

Very truly yours,

Curator
